Frist Italian Renaissance Exhibition Extra Credit Scavenger Hunt
Worth up to 10 points—due day of final
The Frist is free for college students after 5 PM on Thursday and Friday nights. It is $7.00 for students at other times. Remember to bring your student ID.
For opening times and museum information, go to http://fristcenter.org/
When in the galleries, use pencil, not pen. Do not take photographs and do not get too close to the artworks.

Staple receipt here.

1. Find a manuscript choir book (with musical notes) with an image of St. Dominic climbing a ladder.
   Artist (if known), title, and date: _________________________________________________________
   Quick sketch:

2. Find a picture of St. Francis preaching to birds.
   Artist (if known), title, and date: _________________________________________________________
   Quick sketch:

3. Find a painting attributed to the artist Duccio.
   Title, and date: _________________________________________________________
   Quick sketch:
4. Find a “morse” (a piece of ecclesiastical jewelry used to fasted a priest’s cope).

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________

Quick sketch:

5. Find a depiction of the story of the three Magi.

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________

Quick sketch:

6. Find a picture of St. Catherine of Siena and Mary Magdalene.

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________

Quick sketch:

7. Find picture in which there are Rosary beads

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________

Quick sketch:
8. Find a picture showing the funeral of St. Clare

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________________________

Quick sketch:

9. Describe your favorite artwork in the exhibition and explain why.

Artist (if known), title, and date: ________________________________________________

Quick sketch:

10. Discuss how the exhibition related to issues/themes/artworks that we discussed in class.