Abstract: In 600 words describe the proposed study's rationale, (including the contribution to your specialization), study design, methods for conducting the study (including subject recruitment, sample size, measures, data analysis plan). List any pilot studies (or independent studies you conducted).