Honor Statement

By signing below I am confirming that all of the work contained herein is my own. I understand that I was permitted and even encouraged to discuss the solutions to these homework problems with my classmates and to make use of any materials legally and ethically made available to me. However, I at most used those discussions and materials to guide my thinking in writing up my own solutions. At no point did I look at or copy the solutions, whole or in part, created by anyone else in the class, nor did I allow anyone else to look at or copy my solutions. I understand that not adhering to this policy is considered cheating and will be dealt with accordingly.
