Scientia et Humanitas
Author's Agreement

Title of Article: ________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

Author(s): _______________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________

Date: _________________________________________________________________

It is agreed that:

• The author(s) has created the work whose title is listed above.
• The author(s) retains the copyright to the work.
• The author(s) grant to Scientia et Humanitas the right to publish the work in Scientia et Humanitas, the Electronic Journal of Student Research for Basic and Applied Science at Middle Tennessee State University, and in the journal archives.
• The author(s) warrant that s/he has the full power and authority to enter into this agreement and to grant the rights in this agreement.
• The author(s) agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Scientia et Humanitas, the University Honors College, and Middle Tennessee State University against claims of third parties relating to any copyright or patent issues resulting from publications of the above referenced work in Scientia et Humanitas.

Author(s):

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Scientia et Humanitas: A Journal of Student Research